- Indivisible NJ 3rd District was created in January 2017, and “is dedicated to resisting the Trump/Republican agenda, using the framework written in the Indivisible Guide: A Practice Guide for Resisting the Trump Agenda, for those living in New Jersey's Third Congressional District.” (Indivisible NJ 3rd District, Facebook, Accessed 12/27/21)
- The Indivisible Guide was written by Indivisible’s national organization as a manual for activists “rising up across the country” to resist Republican government leadership. “We wrote this guide because we believe that the coming years will see an unprecedented movement of Americans rising up across the country to protect our values, our neighbors, and ourselves. Our goal is to provide practical understanding of how your Members of Congress (MoCs) think, and how you can demonstrate to them the depth and power of the opposition to Donald Trump and to Republican congressional overreach. This is not a panacea, and it is not intended to stand alone. We strongly urge you to marry the strategy in this guide with a broader commitment to creating a more just society, building local power, and addressing systemic injustice and racism. Finally, this guide is intended as a work in progress, one that we hope to continue updating as the resistance to the Trump agenda takes shape. We are happy to offer support to anybody interested in building upon the tactics outlined in this guide, and we hope that if you find it useful or put any of the tactics described above into action, you will let us know how it goes. Feel free to ping some of us on Twitter with questions, edits, recommendations, feedback/stories about what is helpful here, etc.: @IndivisibleTeam, @ezralewin, @angelrafpadilla, @texpat, @Leahgreenb. Or email us at contact@indivisibleguide.com.” (The Indivisible Guide: Conclusion, Indivisible, Accessed 8/10/22)

- Indivisible is a “progressive grassroots movement of millions of activists across every state, fueled by a partnership between thousands of autonomous local Indivisible groups and a national staff.” “Today, the Indivisible movement is a progressive grassroots movement of millions of activists across every state, fueled by a partnership between thousands of autonomous local Indivisible groups and a national staff. Indivisible’s national team offers strategic leadership, movement coordination, and support to Indivisible activists, and also directly lobbies congress, builds partnerships, runs media campaigns, and develops advocacy strategies. Together we fight to defeat the rightwing takeover of American government and build an inclusive democracy.” (About, Indivisible, 8/11/20)
 - Indivisible was brought together to resist the Trump agenda and fights for progressive policies. “Brought together by a practical guide to resist the Trump agenda, Indivisible is a movement of thousands of group leaders and more than a million members taking regular, iterative, and increasingly complex actions to resist the GOPs agenda, elect local champions, and fight for progressive policies.” (About Us, Indivisible, Accessed 6/3/20)
- In June 2020, Indivisible claimed that “ICE, CBP, & police departments” are organizations of “hate,” “uphold systemic racism,” are “rooted in white supremacy,” terrorize minorities, and must be defunded.

Indivisible Guide
@IndivisibleTeam

They're rooted in white supremacy & often work in tandem. ICE, CBP, & police departments uphold systemic racism in our communities, & every year their budgets receive billions of $$ to continue terrorizing, policing, & committing acts of violence against Black & brown ppl.

@IndivisibleTeam

That's why when we say #DefundHate or #DefundICE, we also mean #DefundthePolice because they're one in the same. And while Trump remains in office, Black, brown, & immigrant communities will continue to be under attack.

Hey team! I wanted to share some reflections on the last year. After the incredible victory in NJ on Tuesday, I'm ready to take on Tom MacArthur next year. I hope you join me to flip NJ3 and the House in 2018!

November 9th, one year later

Andy Kim for Congress

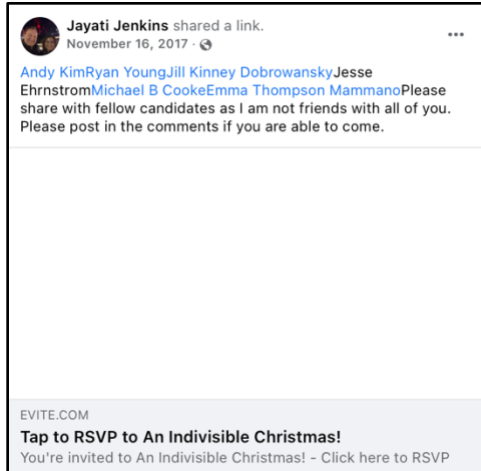

November 9, 2016 changed the course of my life. A year ago today I sought to channel my reactions to Trump's victory into a call for grassroots energy to rise up. I was honored to be part of an effort that mobilized over 100,000 people across this country. Our mission was to redefine what it means to be a citizen and reinvigorate participation in our democracy—not just on Election Day, but every day.

Over the last year, walls and fences in my life have been broken down. I have

- Per Indivisible’s website, the group writes that it was founded on a “radical idea.” “Indivisible was founded on the radical idea that in a representative democracy, your representatives ought to represent you. Our only goal, as a group of progressive former congressional staffers, wonks, and advocates, is to empower the thousands of local Indivisible groups to demand that representation.” (“Indivisible On Offense Conclusion,” Indivisible, Accessed 8/8/22)
- Indivisible endorsed the congressional campaign of Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez.

(Indivisible, Twitter, 10/1/20)

- Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez declared, “call me a radical.” “When asked if she considers herself to be a radical, Ocasio-Cortez says, “You know, if that’s what radical means, call me a radical.” Ocasio-Cortez was sworn into the House of Representatives Thursday as the 116th Congress began its work in Washington, DC. During the Democratic primary in June, she unseated the fourth highest-ranking Democrat in the House of Representatives. Ocasio-Cortez is a Democratic Socialist. She believes in universal health care, tuition-free public college, and huge government outlays to combat global warming.” (CBS News, “Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez: “Call me a radical,” Q2 - KTVQ, 1/4/19)
