Sharice Davids said she would “definitely entertain” raising the federal gas tax:

- During an April 2019 television interview, Davids said she “definitely entertains” the idea of raising the federal gas tax in order to pay for new infrastructure projects. “REPORTER: Right now the federal gas tax is at 18 cents gallon, some want to raise it and use the money for a national infrastructure program. DAVIDS: I definitely entertain it with all the folks who have come out to my office to talk us about it.” (Democrat Tracking 2020 YouTube Page, “Sharice Davids ‘entertains the idea’ of raising the gas tax,’ Uploaded 4/27/19, Clip begins at 0:20)
