

Elissa Slotkin claims to be a centrist who works with Republicans to get things done, but she has voted for President Biden’s policies 100% of the time.

BACKUP:

Elissa Slotkin portrays herself as a centrist who works with Republicans to get things done:

- Elissa Slotkin has campaigned as a centrist compared to the median Democratic candidate. “Slotkin has consequently run as a steadfastly centrist campaign relative to the median Democratic candidate, leading to a kind of stern cautiousness in her overall approach.” (Michael Tracey, “In Michigan, Elissa Slotkin aims squarely for the middle,” The Spectator World, 11/6/18)
- Elissa Slotkin “believes in bipartisanship because she knows that’s how to get things done in Washington” and has touted her bipartisan legislation. “Elissa believes in bipartisanship because she knows that’s how to get things done in Washington. That’s why Elissa wrote 22 bills with Republican cosponsors and passed nine provisions into law—all with bipartisan support. #MI08debate” (Elissa Slotkin, Facebook, 10/6/20)

Slotkin claims to believe in “bipartisanship” in her bones:

- In 2020, Slotkin touted her bipartisan legislation and said that is a person who “believes in bipartisanship in my bones.” “Now all the bills that we have passed and all the 22 that I have introduced have been bipartisan. I am a person who believes in bipartisanship in my bones because I worked for presidents of both parties; Bush and Obama.” (Rep. Slotkin, Junge Make Case For Eighth District to Voters, WDET 101.9 22:30, Accessed 6/11/22)
- In 2020, Slotkin claimed to craft legislation that “that creates an overlap between democrats and republicans.” “I have tried to go about crafting legislation that creates an overlap between democrats and republicans so we actually get something done. I think that is part of my job.” (Rep. Slotkin, Junge Make Case For Eighth District to Voters, WDET 101.9 22:30, Accessed 6/11/22)
- In a 2020 interview, Slotkin touted her bipartisan voting record. “During her interview on Detroit Today on Sept. 11, Slotkin countered that while in Congress, she has ‘voted over 800 times, and 640 of those votes are bipartisan where we’ve got Democrats and Republicans voting for the same bill.’ She has also noted that she has voted against her own party 55 times.” (Slotkin's GOP challenger says she's misleading voters on her record. We fact-checked it; Detroit Free Press, 9/22/20)
