In June 2022, Vicente Gonzalez called an Mayra Flores an unqualified “pawn” of the GOP and criticized her calling herself a patriot when she was born in Mexico:

- In June 2022, Gonzalez called Flores “unqualified” and criticized her for being born in Mexico. “Texas Democrat Rep. Vicente Gonzalez, who’s running against Republican Rep. Mayra Flores – the first Mexican-born woman elected to Congress – in November, resorted to ‘sexist’ and ‘xenophobic’ attacks against the newly sworn-in incumbent... The congressman called Flores an ‘unqualified opponent’ in an interview with Newsweek, in addition to calling her a ‘pawn’ that the Republican Party ‘poured millions of dollars into for a seat that’s going to last six months.’... Newsweek’s Adrian Carrasquillo noted that he wanted to ‘cast himself as the traditional Texan in the race’ while degrading Flores as ‘an immigrant outsider.’ Gonzalez, fighting to be a member of Congress after November, claimed that he also supports ‘God, family, country’ and ‘come[s] from a patriotic family,’ saying, ‘I wasn’t born in Mexico, I was born in South Texas, the son of a Korean war veteran.’” (Jacob Bliss, “House Democrat Vicente Gonzalez Resorts to ‘Sexist,’ ‘Xenophobic’ Attacks Against Incumbent Republican Mayra Flores,” Breitbart, 6/23/2022)
