

Despite being paid a taxpayer-funded salary of nearly $120,000, Rudy Salas skipped almost 450 votes in the state Assembly. To make matters worse, he was in the Capitol building nearly 70% of the time for those missed votes. So, Salas was in Sacramento, he just wasn't showing up to vote like he's paid to do.

BACKUP:

- According to a Legal Opinion from the Deputy Attorney General, law states that these salaries are appropriations.

Your question arises because of the tension between this section and section 4 of Article III of the California Constitution. Section 4 states that, "Except as provided in subsection (b) [relating to compensation of judges], salaries of elected state officials may not be reduced during their term of office. Laws that set these salaries are appropriations."<sup>4</sup> This provision was added to the Constitution in 1972. As I understand it, the crux of your question is whether section 8 supersedes section 4, such that if the Commission adopted a resolution reducing the salary or benefits of an elected state officer, the reduction would take effect on the first Monday of the next December following adoption of the resolution. After carefully reviewing the relevant law, my conclusion is that section 8 does not supersede section 4 in that manner. Instead, both sections are to be given effect, so that the Commission may adjust state officers' salaries and benefits upward at any time, but any adjustment that constitutes a reduction in salary would not take effect until the end of an affected officer's current term in office.
