

Seth Magaziner marched with protestors who called for the defunding and abolishment of police, and called it “an honor” to march alongside them.

BACKUP”

Magaziner marched with protestors who called to “defund” and “abolish” the police, and stated that it was “an honor to march with them”:

- In June 2020, Magaziner posted a photo of himself marching with “Defund the Police” activists, stating that it is “an honor to march with them.” “So inspiring to see thousands of Rhode Islanders, of all races and mostly young, coming together to peacefully but forcefully demand an end to systemic racism that threatens black lives. It is an honor to march with them.” (Seth Magaziner, Twitter, 6/5/20)

(Seth Magaziner, Twitter, 6/5/20)

- In June 2020, Magaziner posted a photo of himself marching beside a “Defund the Police” sign.

(Seth Magaziner, Twitter, 6/5/20)

- In June 2020, Magaziner posted a photo of an “Abolish the Police” sign.

(Seth Magaziner, Twitter, 6/5/20)

- In December 2020, Magaziner posted multiple photos of himself protesting in the wake of the deaths of George Floyd, Breonna Taylor, and others to Twitter. “#5: Out of tragedy comes hope. The deaths of George Floyd, Breonna Taylor & others is a call to action. It was a privilege to join thousands of Rlers protesting peacefully for change, and to engage in challenging & productive conversations about how we can achieve true equity.”
(Seth Magaziner, Twitter, 12/31/20)

(Seth Magaziner, Twitter, 12/31/20)

- In December 2020, Magaziner posted a photo of himself standing in front of an “Abolish the Police” sign.

(Seth Magaziner, Twitter, 12/31/20)

- In December 2020, Magaziner posted a photo of himself marching with protestors.

(Seth Magaziner, Twitter, 12/31/20)

- A full version of the photo shared by Magaziner in December 2020 of himself marching with protestors prominently displays a sign that reads “DEFUND [illegible] POLICE”

(Tom Iannitti, Twitter, 1/27/22)