

At A Bucks County Commissioners Meeting, Bob Harvie Compared Police Helping ICE Agents To Nazi Germany...

In A May 2025 County Commissioners' Meeting, Harvie "Brought Up World War II During A Debate Over Sheriff Fred Harran's Decision To Offer To Aid Federal Immigration Enforcement In The County." "Harvie brought up World War II during a debate over Sheriff Fred Harran's decision to offer to aid federal immigration enforcement in the county. Harran has applied to have his department participate the 287(g) program that allows local cops to participate in Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) efforts." (Linda Stein, "Commissioner Harvie Invokes Hitler in Debate Over Bucks Sheriff's Plan to Help ICE," Delaware Valley Journal, 5/8/25)

HARVIE: "For Someone Who's Spent A Lot Of Time Studying World War II, There Are Definite Parallels That I See Happening...Not Nearly As Great As What Happened In 1920s Germany, 1930s Germany, But Certainly Not Too Far Away From Being In The Same Ballpark. It's Concerning. It's Something That All Of Us Should Be More Focused On." (Linda Stein, "Commissioner Harvie Invokes Hitler in Debate Over Bucks Sheriff's Plan to Help ICE," Delaware Valley Journal, 5/8/25)

Harvie Was Debating Bucks Sheriff Fred Harran, The Only Jewish Sheriff In Pennsylvania At The Time. "In an op-ed at Broad+Liberty, Harran bemoaned the tenor of the attacks against him and his participation in the ICE program. 'Let me be clear: this is about public safety, not politics. It's disheartening to see deliberate falsehoods and personal attacks, including being slandered with Holocaust-era language, simply for doing my job. As the only Jewish sheriff in Pennsylvania, this kind of rhetoric is deeply offensive and has no place in Bucks County.'" (Linda Stein, "Commissioner Harvie Invokes Hitler in Debate Over Bucks Sheriff's Plan to Help ICE," Delaware Valley Journal, 5/8/25)

Doylestown Daily Voice HEADLINE: "Sheriff Fred Harran Demands Apology From Bob Harvie" (Cecilia Levine, "Sheriff Fred Harran Demands Apology From Bob Harvie," Doylestown Daily Voice, 5/9/25)

VIDEO: Harran Demanded An Apology From Harvie Stating "Commissioner Harvie Might Like Reading About World War II History. My Family Lived It." HARVIE: "Sheriff Fred Harran, who is Jewish, released a statement on Friday, May 9, condemning Commissioner Bob Harvie for remarks made during a May 7 commissioners meeting in which Harvie warned of what he called parallels between current political conditions and pre-Holocaust Europe... 'Commissioner Harvie might like reading about World War II history. My family lived it.'" (Cecilia Levine, "Sheriff Fred Harran Demands Apology From Bob Harvie," Doylestown Daily Voice, 5/9/25)

...And Voted Against Funding For New Police Officers.

In November 2022, Harvie Voted Against Hiring Eight New Bucks County Sheriffs Deputies Despite Increasing Crime Rates And An 8,000 Warrant Backlog

In November 2022, Harvie Voted Against Allowing The Bucks County Sheriff To Eight Hire New Sheriff's Deputies And Two Clerks. "The Bucks County Salary Board voted 3-2 last November to allow Sheriff Fred Harran to hire eight deputies and two clerks. But Commissioners Chair Bob Harvie and Vice Chair Diane Ellis-Marseglia voted against hiring the new deputies. And the funding for those jobs remained in limbo until a recent inquiry by a reporter, Harran told DVJournal. However, county officials disagreed with his assessment, saying the money for the deputies was approved in December." (Linda Stein, "Bucks County Sheriff, Commissioners Tussle Over Tax Dollars For Deputies," Delaware Valley Journal, 7/31/23)

The Vote Was 3-2 In Favor Of Hiring The New Deputies. "The Bucks County Salary Board voted 3-2 last November to allow Sheriff Fred Harran to hire eight deputies and two clerks." (Linda Stein, "Bucks County Sheriff, Commissioners Tussle Over Tax Dollars For Deputies," Delaware Valley Journal, 7/31/23)