HEADLINE: “Colorado House Committee Kills Bill To Increase Punishment In Child Sex Crimes.” (Marianne Goodl, “Colorado House Committee Kills Bill To Increase Punishment In Child Sex Crimes,” Colorado Politics, 2/15/24)

In February 2024, A Colorado House Committee Killed House Bill 1092 Which “Would Have Mandated Minimum Sentences For Those Who Buy Children For Sexual Exploitation.” “A Democratic-controlled House committee killed legislation that supporters said would put more teeth into Colorado law following hours of testimony, in which victims who were bought and sold as children for purposes of sexual exploitation sought to persuade lawmakers to advance the measure. House Bill 1092 would have mandated minimum sentences for those who buy children for sexual exploitation. The bill was heard in the House State, Civic, Military and Veterans Affairs Committee, which is also known as the “kill committee.” On Thursday, the panel lived up to its nickname, killing the bill on an 8-3 party-line vote.” (Marianne Goodl, “Colorado House Committee Kills Bill To Increase Punishment In Child Sex Crimes,” Colorado Politics, 2/15/24)
