

In Congress, Lindsay James would have voted to tax Social Security benefits, taking money out of the pockets of seniors who have paid into the system their entire lives.

James Stated That She Wants To Undo The One Big Beautiful Bill Act. “Tax cuts for the rich just make the already wealthy even wealthier. Tax cuts for middle and working class folks get reinvested into our economy and benefit everyone. Let's undo the OBBB and pass some actual tax relief for working and middle class people.” (Lindsay James, Facebook, 5/15/26)

Lindsay James Opposed The One Big Beautiful Bill Act “This whole Big Beautiful Bill is only beautiful for billionaires,” James said. “The bill that [Hinson] supported and championed — nearly 27,000 people in Iowa’s 2nd Congressional District are at risk of losing their health care. This law threatens rural hospitals and their operations.” (Lindsay James, Facebook, 8/19/25)

The One Big Beautiful Bill Includes A $6,000 Annual Deduction For Seniors, Expanding The Number Of Retirees Who Won't Face Taxes On Their Benefits From 64% To 88%.

“The Bill Expands The Existing Exemptions, Increasing The Number Of Retirees Who Won't Face Taxes On Their Benefits From 64% To 88%.” “The bill doesn’t repeal the tax on Social Security benefits outright. Instead, it introduces a new deduction that reduces the taxable income of many seniors, lowering or eliminating what they owe on their benefits. As a result, about 88% of retirees are expected to pay no tax on their Social Security benefits, not because the tax is eliminated, but due to a combination of deductions. Currently, 64% of seniors aged 65 and older already qualify for exemptions or deductions that prevent their benefits from being taxed. The bill expands the existing exemptions, increasing the number of retirees who won’t face taxes on their benefits from 64% to 88%.” (Mike Lynch and Curtis Hopp, The OBBBA’s New Social Security Deduction: What It Really Means for Retirees,” Hartford Funds, Accessed 6/3/26)
