

A Key Tenet Of The Catholic Faith Is To Protect Life And While Nancy Lacore Identifies As Catholic, She Is Endorsed By Radical Abortion Groups Such As Emily's List And Explicitly Support Abortion On Demand.

Nancy Lacore Identifies As Catholic. “At the candidate forum, Lacore clearly felt uneasy wading into thornier partisan issues. When a voter asked the four participating Democrats seated at the front of the room to commit to impeaching Trump for his unauthorized attacks on Iran, Lacore sidestepped the question. When another voter lamented that the Democratic party wasn’t talking more about abortion rights, Lacore mentioned her Catholic faith but said personal beliefs on the matter shouldn’t be imposed on others—before quickly noting that she’d been endorsed by EMILY’s List, a pro-choice organization. At times, it didn’t always seem like she was thrilled to be running as a Democrat.” (Lauren Egan, “Can This Former Admiral Navigate Rough Political Seas,” The Bulwark, 4/15/26)

The Catholic Church Itself Professes The Protection Of Life From “The First Moment Of Existence” “Merriam-Webster says the definition of pro-life is “opposed to abortion,” but it’s so much more than that. Being pro-life definitely includes opposing abortion. This belief aligns with the teachings of our faith, as the Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches not only that ‘human life must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception’ but that ‘from the first moment of his existence, a human being must be recognized as having the rights of a person.’” (Susan Ciancio, “Pro-Life Meaning: A Clear Catholic View On Pro-Life Vs Pro-Choice,” Human Life International, 10/1/25)

Emily’s List Is Dedicated To Electing Pro-Choice Democratic Women. “Changing the face of power, one Democratic pro-choice woman at a time.” (Home, Emily’s List, Accessed 8/12/26)

Lacore Lists On Her Priorities Page “I Will Work To Guarantee Women’s Reproductive Freedom Into Law.” “I will work to guarantee women’s reproductive freedom in law. I was able to successfully navigate a male-dominated career in the military, rise to the rank of three-star Admiral, and raise six children because I was able to choose when I had my kids. This issue goes beyond abortion, it’s about having access to the resources needed for family planning. Our government should not be interfering with the decisions a woman makes behind closed doors with her doctor and her family.” (Priorities For The Lowcountry & SC-01, Nancy Lacore For Congress, Accessed 8/12/26)
