

Kathy Castor Is One Of Nancy Pelosi's Most Loyal Allies In Congress, Even Repeatedly Being Personally Chosen By Pelosi To Serve In Leadership Roles Pushing Their Radical Agenda

In December 2018, Castor Was Chosen By Pelosi To Lead House Democrat's Select Committee On The Climate Crisis. "Rep. Kathy Castor (D-Fla.) will chair the new Select Committee on Climate Change, House Speaker-designate Nancy Pelosi said today in a statement. The pick comes after weeks of wrangling among Democrats over the power, purpose and membership of the panel that has been a top priority for some of the party's newly elected progressive members, such as Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez." Castor Called Pelosi The "Most Effective Speaker Of The House In History." And Talked About How She Had A "Front Row Seat To Her Leadership, Service, And Accomplishments." "Speaker Emerita Pelosi will go down in history as the most effective Speaker of the House in history. I know, because I had a front row seat to her leadership, service and accomplishments over the past eighteen years. When she was sworn in as the first woman Speaker of the House in 2007 and I was sworn in for the first time, my daughters stood with her on the dais as Pelosi took the gavel and announced her work would be 'For the Children'. I have had the honor to work with Speaker Pelosi and watch her leadership progress our country forward and positively impact the lives of our neighbors."
