

Jamie Ager Is Being Supported By A Group That Called To Defund The Police — A Movement That Cost The Asheville Police Department Over 100 Officers And Has Left It Critically Understaffed Today

Ager Was Endorsed By An Organization That Called For Defunding The Police

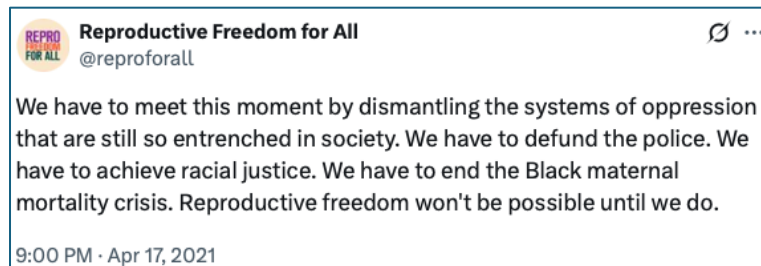

In July 2026, Reproductive Freedom For All Endorsed Ager. “Reproductive Freedom for All is proud to endorse the following candidates for election to the U.S. House: Sean McCann – MI-04; Richard Pan – CA-06; Jessica Killin – CO-05; Jamie Ager – NC-11; Denise Powell – NE-02; Paige Cognito – PA-08; Brian Poindexter – OH-07” (Reproductive Freedom For All, “Reproductive Freedom For All Endorses Slate Of Key U.S. House Challengers Ahead Of The 2026 Midterm Elections,” Press Release, 7/7/26)

On April 20, 2021, Reproductive Freedom For All Said That It Was “Past Time To Defund The Police.” “It’s past time to defund the police. After multiple failed attempts to change the culture of policing, it’s clear that police have not succeeded in reckoning with the generations of systemic racism, oppression, and state violence it has engaged in. We must continue to do better.” (@Reproforall, Twitter, 4/20/21)

On April 17, 2021, Reproductive Freedom For All Said That “Reproductive Freedom Won’t Be Possible” Until “We Defund The Police,” Among Other Demands. “We have to meet this moment by dismantling the systems of oppression that are still so entrenched in society. We have to defund the police. We have to achieve racial justice. We have to end the Black maternal mortality crisis. Reproductive freedom won't be possible until we do.” (@Reproforall, Twitter, 4/17/21)
