

Janelle Stelson Opposed The Working Families Tax Plan That Would Have Provided The Average Pennsylvania Household More Than $3,500. Stelson, If Elected, Supports Letting Taxes Go Up On The People She Would Represent.

Janelle Stelson Called OBBB “Devastating.” “Scott Perry was the deciding vote on a bill that would cut health care for nearly 20,000 people in our area. This bill is devastating and will worsen the doctor shortage, threaten our hospitals, and raise premiums.” (Priorities, Janelle Stelson For Congress, Accessed 7/23/26)

The OBBB Provided A $3,500 Average Tax Cut To Pennsylvania Residents

The OBBB Prevented The Largest Tax Hike In American History. “The largest tax increase in American history? That’s what Rep. Michael Lawler claims would happen if Congress does not pass a budget reconciliation bill by the end of the year. Lawler claimed Americans would face the largest tax increase in history if the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act expires. In pure dollar terms, he’s right.” (Jill Terreri Ramos, “Putting Claim About ‘Largest Tax Increase’ In Context,” Politifact, 4/22/25)

The OBBB Provided A $3,500 Average Tax Cut To Pennsylvania Residents. (Garrett Watson, “The One Big Beautiful Bill Cuts Taxes Across the US, New Analysis Finds,” Tax Foundation, 8/13/25)

(Garrett Watson, “The One Big Beautiful Bill Cuts Taxes Across the US, New Analysis Finds,” Tax Foundation, 8/13/25)