

Janelle Stelson Supports Allowing Biological Males To Compete In Girls' Sports.

VIDEO: In May 2026, Stelson Said She Does Not Support Federal Legislation On Biological Men Playing In Women's Sports. ANCHOR: "Once you get to that point, you Republicans are coming after every single Democrat when it comes to transgender sports. Should transgender women be allowed in women's sports. Whether it's the high school or college level, what's the answer?" STELSON: "The answer is no. The answer is, you know, I think this is something where doctors and families and sports associations need to be involved, not federal politicians."
