Dandiya, a first-generation American living with her husband and son in Palm Beach Gardens, just announced her candidacy in Florida's 21st Congressional District.” (Jesse Scheckner, “Floridians Deserve Better”: Pia Dandiya Launches Campaign To Flip Brian Mast's Seat In CD 21,” Florida Politics, 6/2/25)

In May 2026, Dandiya Shifted From Running In The 21st Congressional District To The 22nd Congressional District. “Democratic congressional candidate Pia Dandiya says she will run for an open seat representing Florida's 22nd Congressional District. That means shifting away from an effort to challenge incumbent U.S. Rep. Brian Mast, a Stuart Republican. ‘I’m deeply grateful to the thousands of supporters throughout Palm Beach County and the Treasure Coast who have believed in this campaign from the very beginning,’ Dandiya said. ‘This decision came after a great deal of thought and reflection. Ultimately, redistricting fundamentally reshaped the political map, raising the stakes to flip the House in November. Over and over again, I hear from voters who want a representative who will legislate for the future, bring people together and serve as a real check on the Trump administration. That’s exactly the kind of leadership I will bring to the newly formed 22nd District.’” (“Redistricting Shuffle: Pia Dandiya Shifts Candidacy To Open CD 22,” Pia Dandiya For Congress, 5/26/26)=

Dandiya's Home Is Not Located In The 22nd Congressional District, It Is Located In The 21st Congressional District. (Proposed Congressional Redistricting Plan, Executive Office Of The Governor, Accessed 8/6/26)
