

Pia Dandiya Opposed The Tax Law That Ended Federal Income Taxes On Tips And On Overtime Pay. If That Law Had Not Passed As She Wanted, The Average Tipped Worker Would Pay Approximately Eighteen Hundred Dollars A Year More In Taxes, And The Average Overtime Worker At Least Fourteen Hundred Dollars A Year

In July 2025, Dandiya Criticized Her Then Opponent, Congressman Brian Mast, For His Support Of The One Big Beautiful Bill. “It’s deeply troubling that my opponent, Congressman Brian Mast, supported the reckless ‘Big Beautiful Bill,’ which passed today. Floridians deserve leaders who will protect their health, put families first, and strengthen our communities — not support dangerous policies that cause lasting harm. In July 2025, Dandiya Posted That She “Won’t Accept” The One Big Beautiful Bill. “The Big Beautiful Bill changes the tax structure of our country in an unprecedented way. It guts key middle-class deductions—like for mortgage interest and state/local taxes. It shrinks child tax credits. It hikes payroll taxes while the ultra-wealthy cash in. Middle-class families will pay more while billionaires pay less. I have spent my career as a teacher and principal working with families just getting by. I’ve seen what it looks like when the ends don’t meet. And it is gut wrenching. Families can’t afford this. We won’t accept it. Our fight back for a fairer future starts now. In July 2025, Dandiya Called The One Big Beautiful Bill, “Anything But Beautiful.”

“Today’s so-called “Big Beautiful Bill” is anything but beautiful. It puts some of our most basic values at risk - stripping healthcare and food assistance from millions of Floridians while adding over $4 trillion to our national debt. Let’s not forget: Brian Mast’s own website says he “strongly supports a balanced budget amendment to the United States Constitution,” and he’s publicly said, “I support and have voted in favor of a balanced budget amendment ... and I’ll keep fighting to get it across the finish line!” Yet here he is, supporting legislation that blows a massive hole in the federal budget. Floridians deserve leaders who don’t say one thing and do another. You can learn more about my campaign and my vision at <http://piaforcongress.com> - to a stronger future! #PiaForCongress #FL21

Dandiya Opposes The One Big Beautiful Bill Act, Which Would Eliminate Income Taxes On Tipped Wages For Those Making Less Than $160,000, Saving The Average Tipped Worker Approximately $1,800 Annually

The One Big Beautiful Bill Act Contains A Provision That Allows For A Tax Deduction For All Tips Received. "(a) IN GENERAL. —There shall be allowed as a deduction an amount equal to the qualified tips received during the taxable year that are included on statements furnished to the by the taxpayer on Form 4137 (or successor)." (H.R. 1, Introduced: 5/20/25; CBS News, 5/15/25)

The One Big Beautiful Bill Act Contains A Provision That Would Eliminate Federal Income Taxes On Tips For Individuals Earning Less Than $160,000. “It would create a new tax deduction eliminating federal income taxes on tips for people working in jobs that have traditionally received them, as long as they make less than $160,000 in 2025. The Trump administration would publish a list of qualifying occupations within 90 days of the bill’s signing.” (Wyatte Grantham-Phillips and Jonathan J. Cooper, “What To Know About ‘No Tax On Tips,’ Trump’s Tax Pledge That’s In The GOP Budget Bill,” PBS, 5/22/25)

According To The Tax Policy Center, The Removal Of Income Tax On Tips Would Give Tipped Workers An Average Tax Cut Of $1,800. “Even among tipped workers, benefits would be limited. TPC estimated only about 60 percent of households with tipped workers would benefit if they could deduct tips from taxable income. Their average tax cut: about $1,800.” (Howard Gleckman, “Exempting Tips From Federal Income Tax Would Benefit Very Few Workers,” Tax Policy Center, 9/19/24)

Leaving Out Those Who Already Don’t Pay Federal Income Tax, Roughly 63% Of Tipped Workers Would See A Reduction In Their Tax Burden. “For many low-income Americans, payroll taxes, rather than the income tax, are the biggest taxes they pay. Roughly 37 percent of tipped workers already don’t owe any federal income tax, according to an estimate from the Budget Lab at Yale.” (Alicia Parlapiano and Andrew Durden, “An Illustrated Guide To Who Really Benefits From ‘No Tax On Tips,’” The New York Times, 6/5/25)

Dandiya Opposes The One Big Beautiful Bill Act, Which Would Reduce Taxes On Overtime Pay, Saving The Average Overtime Worker Between $1,400 And $1,750 Per Year

The One Big Beautiful Bill Act (OBBA) Contains A Provision That Allows For A Tax Deduction For All Qualified Overtime Pay. “(a) IN GENERAL. —There shall be allowed as a deduction an amount equal to the qualified overtime compensation received during the taxable year.” (H.R. 1, Introduced: 5/20/25; CBS News, 5/15/25)

The New York Times HEADLINE: “Work Overtime? You May Soon Get a Tax Cut.” (Andrew Duehren, “Work Overtime? You May Soon Get A Tax Cut.,” New York Times, 6/6/25)

The Tax Break Would Be Available To Almost All American Workers Who Work Overtime And Are Paid An Hourly Wage. “Under the sprawling domestic policy bill that Republicans pushed through the House and are preparing to steer through the Senate, the tax break would be limited. It would be available only to Americans who, under federal law, must be paid at a time-and-a-half rate for working any time exceeding 40 hours in a week. That’s a broad group that includes almost all Americans who are paid an hourly wage, but many salaried workers would not be eligible.” (Andrew Duehren, “Work Overtime? You May Soon Get A Tax Cut.,” New York Times, 6/6/25)

The White House Counsel Of Economic Advisers Estimates That The Average Overtime Worker Would Get Their Tax Burden Lowered By Between $1,400 And $1,750 Per Year. “The White House Council of Economic Advisers — who work for Trump — estimated that the average overtime worker would get a tax break of $1,400 to $1,750 per year until it expired in 2028.” (Ryan Teague Beckwith, “Has The Overtime Tax Exemption Passed? Here’s Where Things Stand,” NBC News, 5/30/25)

The Institute On Taxation And Policy Estimates It Would Save Overtime Workers An Average Of $330, With A Range Of $80 To $940. “But An Analysis From The Institute On Taxation And Economic Policy Pegged The Average Tax Savings at a much lower $330 per year. What’s more, it found that it would benefit higher-income workers more, with the bottom 60% snagging an average of $80 and the top 20% pocketing an average of $940.” (Ryan Teague Beckwith, “Has The Overtime Tax Exemption Passed? Here’s Where Things Stand,” NBC News, 5/30/25)

The Provision Eliminating Taxes On Overtime Was Supported By Law Enforcement, Which Claimed It Would Help With Officer Retention And Morale

Fox News HEADLINE: “Trump’s ‘Big, Beautiful Bill’ Wins Support From Police For Overtime Tax Elimination” (Emma Colton, “Trump’s ‘Big, Beautiful Bill’ Wins Support From Police For Overtime Tax Elimination,” Fox News, 5/19/25)

Law Enforcement Supported The Provision Eliminating Taxes On Overtime Work And Claimed It Would Have A Positive Impact On Officer Retention And Morale. “FIRST ON FOX: Police officers are rallying behind a provision in President Donald Trump’s ‘big, beautiful bill’ to end taxing overtime work, which they say would have a favorable ripple effect on officer retention and morale.” (Emma Colton, “Trump’s ‘Big, Beautiful Bill’ Wins Support From Police For Overtime Tax Elimination,” Fox News, 5/19/25)
